

Centre Stage Classes at Rivergate Condo – Update
30th August 2017

Dear Parents,

Hope you are well and have all had a lovely summer break?

We have come back after the holidays to find out that several have dropped out of these classes leaving very small numbers in the class. At centre stage we cap our classes at 12 children max, to allow good teacher student ratio and to be able to maintain quality in our classes and teaching. However, at the moment the class numbers are so small that it makes it very difficult for us to teach drama, essentially a group activity and also financially maintain these classes – after paying for room, teacher & transport to the condo.

We would really love to build these classes so we can continue to run them. Would you be able to help us in advertising these classes? If we supply some fliers, please can you let us know if you would be able to let people know in your condo, so they know how to sign up for the class if they are interested.

What we have decided, is that we will run classes there for the next few weeks in order to try and build numbers. If after that we have succeeded in building we will be happy to continue with the classes. If we haven't managed to build properly then we will re look at the numbers and make a decision after that.

All our classes and plans are written specifically inline with a childs' developmental stage and prepared with that in mind so we can best offer creative drama activities appropriate to age and ability which are fun, challenging, yet achievable . Therefore we provide guidelines for each class.

Just to clarify the class times and age guideline for each class they are as follows:

4.30pm – Those children born in – 2013, 2012, 2011

5.30pm – Those children born in – 2010, 2009, 2008

Thank you parents for your support previously and thank you in advance in trying to get these classes up and running properly again.
