

Friday 4.30pm Class Changes
Musical Theatre On Stage Class previously with Amanda Thornton
F1630AT– Update

Dear Parents & Students,

We hope you all had a lovely Summer and a good break?

As you will already know and previously informed last term, that Amanda had come to the end of her two year contract with us and had decided to move back to Scotland to be with her partner.

We had lined up Tania Levy to take over this class but unfortunately she was ill in the first week of term and was unable to take this and Roshni covered and last week it was a Public Holiday.

We have since made some more changes to our timetable and we have decided to place Megan Chng, one of our current Centre Stage teachers as the teacher of this class until further notice.

Megan is a Teacher of Dance, Jazz, Ballet, Tap & Contemporary, Pop Stars, and Musical Theatre and in her training specialised in Musical Theatre, her first love. Some of you may already know Megan and will have seen her around the Centre or have been taught by her before, as she has been with Centre Stage for a year now.

We feel sure that you will continue to enjoy your On Stage MT Classes with Megan and that you will grow and develop as a person, as well as a performer and that you will acquire new and valuable skills and that very soon you will grow to love your classes with Megan in the same way that you did with Amanda. You will find Megan a fun, upbeat, enthusiastic teacher of Musical Theatre.

We would like to apologise to you for the late notice & confirmation regarding this class and teacher updates. Usually these would have been communicated to you before now.

Unfortunately, we have had rather a run of sudden changes. We have unexpectedly, found ourselves down three teachers for the beginning of this term. Lucy Calvert, who has been ill and was on complete rest and has a Medical Certificate for a month remained in the UK and is just slowly coming back in to work today and over the next few weeks when we hope she will be fit enough to come back to full time teaching. Our new RAD Ballet teacher Megan West, who had a prior commitment before accepting the job, and who it was arranged would start the term later was involved in a dance charity project in Ghana, which finished after the beginning of our term starts, flew in yesterday. And one of our other new teachers, due to join us and whom has been lined up since February, has just had the happy, but unexpected news, that she is expecting a baby and has only recently decided not to come out to Singapore to take up her position with us. As you can imagine all this has had a rather sudden, disruptive and dramatic affect on our scheduling, delaying timetabling confirmation, as all teachers and classes are inter- connected and therefore it has a knock on effect on everything and everybody! ☺

Thank you in advance for your understanding in this matter. We also want to thank all our fabulous CS team and to the teachers particularly, who have jumped in to help, offering to work on their days off, for being generally flexible, understanding and accommodating to these disruptions. As we have found you, our CS parents to have also been, whilst we make changes throughout our timetable - re-scheduling classes & teachers, adding additional classes and moving scheduled classes and organising cover classes and so on. Now we are happy to say we are all sorted and able to confirm the majority of any changes and updates with you and we are all looking forward to the year ahead.

We really look forward to seeing you all back after the summer break and to an exciting and productive beginning of term and new academic Year!

Very best wishes,

Ali & Pete
And The Centre Stage Team
