

Media Release Form

From time to time we use photographs and videos taken during our classes, shows, workshops and rehearsals on our website and our Facebook pages, as well as in promotional and marketing materials. Permission has been granted by you to us to do so when signing our Terms and Conditions or by participating in one of our classes, shows or workshops, unless expressly withdrawn in writing.

We intend also to use these images as part of our promotional material to be used in both Singapore and other countries within South East Asia including, but not limited to, China, Hong Kong, Japan, Malaysia, Thailand and Vietnam. These images will only be used by us or others in connection with promoting or marketing Centre Stage activities or joint ventures and will not be sold or otherwise traded.

Please can you sign below to illustrate that you have read and understood our intentions and that you have no problem with our using the images as described above?
