

The Mystery Tree

The mystery tree is a terrible tree - ALL

It can creep up on you and can creep up on me - B&K

It has all sorts of secrets wrapped up in each leaf - M&L

And no-body asks why it causes such grief - H+N

But it does and you know it, and I know it to - ALL * * *

And even my Grandma has sworn that it's true - D&N

That the tiny black seed that's both shiny and dull - B&C

Had grown through a crack in the top of a skull, - ALL

The roots had GRLS pushed down through the old nostril hole - BOYS

And taken firm grip in the dirt and the coal - GIRLS

Upwards a branch grew and no-one could stop it - M+L

When it poked it's vile tip through the rotting eye-socket. - ALL * * *

So no wonder these tendrils cause such deathly fears - B+C

As they creep through the holes that were once someone's ears! - ALL

Now take care little one as you walk through the wood - B+K

Take a dog, or a playmate, I think that you should - M+L

Listen hard for a rustle and keep your eyes wide - H+N

And perhaps a small dagger held close by your side - JOIN - (M+L*)

Just remember the place that the mystery tree grew - JOIN D+N

And just pray that it creeps up on anyone but YOU! - JOIN B+C + (B+K*)
