And this one time –

She said –

That's where the secret children live –

And I remember it really clearly because up till then I'd been laughing and suddenly I was fucking terrified –

And she just said yeah –

It's where the secret children live –

Mum's secret children –

And from that point on we were obsessed –

So the way we saw it mum had these secret children –

A little boy and a little girl like us –

And everyday when we went to school they came out of the wall –

And they replaced us – And the thing is –

They didn't have to go to school cause they were better than us –

They already knew all the stuff at school –

And whenever we ate dinner –

This was when mum would get pissed off at us –

Cause we'd whisper to each other about what they would've had for dinner –

The secret children –

But in the morning they would have had this great dinner –

And we'd describe it to each other –

Always so much better than our dinner –

Mum would get annoyed –

Cause she'd never know what was going on – Cause we'd be there laughing and whispering – And sometimes she'd try to be part of the joke – But it never really worked –

She never could be part of the joke –

Cause she didn't know what the joke was – Maybe she'd be upset by it if I told her now – Maybe she'd think we were being rude – That in some way it was about how we didn't feel like she did enough for us –

But it really wasn't like that at all –
