

The Little Blue Tractor

Narr Farmer Fred scratched his head and looked up at the sky. It looked like it was going to snow so he asked his favourite blue tractor to bring all the animals back into the barn.

Farmer Please bring all the animals back in to the barn.

Tractor Ok Farmer Fred

Narr And off went the little blue tractor. First of all he found the pig snuffling and munching. He told the pig that it was going to snow so he/she must come into the barn.

Tractor It's going to snow you must come into the barn.

Narr But the pig didn't want to go into the barn he/she wanted to eat.

Pigs I don't want to go into the barn, I want to eat. (Munch munch munch.)

Narr So off went the Little Blue Tractor. Soon he came to the hen clucking and pecking, he told the hen it was going to snow so she must come into the barn.

Tractor It's going to snow you must come into the barn.

Narr But the hen did not want to go into the barn she wanted to cluck and peck.

Hens I don't want to go into the barn I want to cluck and peck. (cluck cluck peck)

Narr So off went the Little Blue Tractor. Soon he came to the sheep baaing in the field, he told the sheep it was going to snow so he/she must come into the barn.

Tractor It's going to snow so you must come into the barn.

Narr But the sheep did not want to go into the barn he wanted to baa in the field.

Sheep I don't want to go into the barn I want to baa in the field. (Baa baa baaa)

Narr So off went the Little Blue Tractor. Soon he came to the horse who was galloping in the field, he told the horse it was going to snow so he/she must come into the barn.

Tractor It's going to snow so you must come into the barn.

Narr But the Horse did not want to go into the barn he wanted to gallop in the field.

Horse I don't want to go into the barn I want to gallop in the field. (gallop gallop)

Narr So the little Blue Tractor went to tell Farmer Fred that the animals would not come back into the barn.

Tractor The animals will not come back into the barn.

Narr Farmer Fred scratched his head and said well they can stay where they are and you can go in the nice warm barn.

Farmer They can stay where they are and you can go into the nice warm barn.

Narr And off he went. Just then big fat fluffy white snow flakes began to fall from the sky. Little Blue Tractor looked up and began to worry about all the animals. Oh bother thought Little Blue Tractor I will have to go and bring those naughty animals back into the barn.

Tractor Oh Bother, I will have to bring those naughty animals back into the barn.

Narr And off went the little Blue Tractor through the icy snow. First he found the pig and said come on pig.

Tractor Come on pig!

Narr And on jumped the pig. Next he came to the hen and said come on hen.

Tractor Come on hen

Narr And on jumped the hen. Next he came to the sheep and said come on sheep.

Tractor Come on sheep

Narr And on jumped the sheep. Then he came to the horse and said come on horse.

Tractor Come on horse

Narr And on jumped the horse. Soon they were back at the nice warm barn and with an oink and a cluck and a baa and a neigh they all clambered out and by way of saying thank you they all sang him a song.
