

Prince Patrick

(Slaying the Dragon)

(Prince runs on stage.)

Merlin? Merlin? (Looks at the audience.) How come you can never find a good wizard when you need one? Merlin! (Turns around really fast as if he were just tapped on the shoulder.) What was that? (Tapped on shoulder again.) Merlin, was that you? Oh, I see, you're invisible again, eh? I told you not to get in a fight with that witch. She's tricky. (Really excited.) Look, Merlin, a new princess just moved into the castle next door and I went over to talk to her and she sicked her dragon on me! (Showing his back.) Look at these burn marks. I don't know what to do. I'm in love with her. You gotta come up with a magic potion I can use on her. How about the one we used on Rapunzel? Nah, that just made her hair grow. Gosh, I can't believe she turned her dragon on me. Merlin, you should've seen it. It was a mean dragon. Wait a minute. I never heard of a princess that had a dragon. Maybe he's got her held hostage in that castle! Merlin, I know the way to win her heart. Slay the dragon! Now, if you could just tell me where to get a really, really, really, really big sword.

Hughston

(Problems with Space Parents)

(Hughston walks up to his parents.)

Mom, Dad, you better sit down. All right . . . uh . . . I ah . . . I got something to tell you and it's bad. Um . . . I'll just say it. Mom, I took out your spaceship without asking and I dented the fender. But it wasn't my fault! There were two robots crossing the galaxy! They just appeared out of nowhere! So to avoid hitting them, I turned right into an asteroid belt. But don't worry. I'm a good driver. I didn't hit a single asteroid. It was the comet I had trouble with. (Slams fist into hand.) BAM! I hit it hard. Oh, the spaceship's still in one piece . . . but it looks about as dented as the left side of the moon. Ok, Dad, Mom. I know you have to ground me. But I ask you, please, just don't make me walk to school. That's so 1990's.