'Tag On' Trinity Class for Creative Drama Students

Dear Parents & Students,

We would like to re introduce an additional class available to you – Trinity Speech & Drama or Acting Exam Class – to be held for current Creative Drama students, only, held after your Creative Drama Class, which we call 'Tag On' Trinity.

Trinity classes are a class that we run to prepare students for the practical Performing Arts Exams – adjudicated by Trinity College London.

Trinity College London, have a series of graded, Vocational, arts exams in Speech & Drama, Acting, Communication and Musical Theatre. TCL send an examiner from the UK each year to assess the students that enter for exams.

We are proposing that Creative Drama Students, wishing to stay on a further hour, after their current class - on a weekly basis, can join this class and work in preparation towards the Trinity graded exams in Acting.

Trinity College London Exams are of value for many reasons:

Audition Technique - The skills applied in preparation towards the exams, help those students, wishing to enter the profession, providing an excellent grounding in 'Audition Preparation', technique, top tips, discipline and presentation. In addition, it helps create a portfolio of work ready for auditions in the future.

Entering The Industry – Commitment Towards Improvement - For those students wishing to enter the industry, when older, it indicates their commitment and discipline, shown towards improvement and preparation and displays a serious interest in this area. These exams are particularly good alongside a students' experience of performance through the opportunities available at Centre Stage, to perform in the On Stage Productions and Class Presentations.

Marking Progression - It gives students the opportunity to mark their progress, from an outside eye, in a formal setting, with an Internationally, recognized examination body. Students, develop skills along the way, receiving a written report and Certificate from Trinity College London after the exam.

University Applications - When students get older – these exams help towards University applications – All University applications, welcome the display of diligence, commitment and discipline towards activities and interests outside of school.

UK University Applications - UCAS Points – The older Grades in Trinity Exams – Grades 6-8 - go towards providing UCAS points when applying for Universities in the UK. Currently:

Grade 6 – Pass = 8 Merit = 10 Distinction = 12

Grade 7 – Pass = 12 Merit = 14 Distinction = 16

Grade 8 – Pass = 24 Merit = 27 Distinction = 30

UK Qualifications – In the UK Grades 6 & 8 for the 15 - 18 year olds are part of the National Vocational Qualifications Framework (NVQ's) and as such Grade 6 is seen as the equivalent of an IGCSE/GCSE and Grade 8 is seen as the equivalent of an A'level/IB – in the UK.

School Arts & Service Awards - Those who don't necessarily wish to enter the profession, will find it is still of great value at school, with CAS (Creativity Activity Service) in the IB schools and comes under the Performance Arts section, for The Duke of Edinburgh Awards (this also applies for your On Stage classes too)

School – Presentations – Building Confidence – Preparation towards presenting exam material and the skills developed within this, through work on Expression, Voice & Speech – As well as the feeling of achievement - helps build confidence in the students, along side opportunities to perform in shows – the positive results are seen throughout school life and in all areas of personal development and life! 😊
